

THEATRICAL TEAMSTERS LOCAL 817

LOCATION DEPARTMENT DEFINITIONS

For Information Purposes Only

I. LOCAL 817 COVERED POSITIONS:

ASSISTANT LOCATION MANAGER

Duties include following the direction of the Location Manager and overseeing all aspects of the location department's functions in serving the needs of the production.

LOCATION SCOUT

Duties include to search for locations for future use by productions and the securing of necessary permits and other required documentation for use of locations.

LOCATION COORDINATOR

Duties include working in the Production Office coordinating the daily work of, and providing clerical support for, the Locations Department.

The Location Coordinator acts as the information hub by receiving all the information from department members and disbursing accordingly.

LOCATION ASSISTANT

Duties include maintaining the negotiated condition and the use of location sites (set) and support spaces, in accordance with rental contracts or governmental permits. The Location Assistant serves as a liaison between the Location Department and worksite and communities (e.g. generating and distributing letters, set and directional signs, etc.).

II. NON-EXCLUSIVE JOB DUTIES:

Many specific functions are not exclusive and may be performed by any individual working in any covered job classification (e.g. answering phones, making copies, completing particular forms) and consistent with long-standing custom and practice are not exclusive to any particular job classification.

It is the intention of the parties to protect and preserve bargaining unit work for bargaining unit employees. The Employer will not give work to non-bargaining unit employees which is normally performed by bargaining unit employees where qualified bargaining unit employees are available.
